Cello rental conditions and rent buy conditions Scarlett Arts, Scarlett Arts Music in Amsterdam.

- All rented instruments are handed over to the hirer in proper condition, without (severe) damage. Light cosmetic damage is normal with rental instruments. The hirer inspects the instrument when collecting it and endorses this by signing the hire contract.

- All hired instruments are provided with a bow and a cover to lend. The hirer chooses a cello and rents the larger sizes for 2% of the cello purchase (day)value. The rental cello options start at € 1650,00 and it is rented for € 33,00 per month, i.e. 2% of the cello price. The hirer can also choose a better instrument up to € 5.000,00, the rent is then also 2% of the cello and one receives a bow and case to lend to complete the set.

- The rental instrument remains the property of Scarlett Arts. If you eventually buy a cello from me, I will deduct the first 12 months of paid rent.

- The rental instrument remains the property of Scarlett Arts. If you eventually buy a cello from me, I will deduct the first 12 months of paid rent. The moment you decide to buy a rented cello, the day price will be used. This is because of the inflation.

- When renting instruments to people outside of my teaching practice, a deposit of four months' rent will be paid, either by PIN, Betaalverzoek or in cash. This deposit covers any shortages in rent, compensation for minor damages such as violin builders work, the time the administration and I may have to spend in reminding the tenant of outstanding payments, any incorrect personal details, the use of the internet to find out about your personal details. All the costs of calling in a debt collector if any, will also be reimbursed from the deposit and further recovered from the tenant.

- A hire purchase arrangement offers the possibility of paying the purchase price of a cello and bow and cover in up to 24 instalments. Thus after 24 months of full payment the instrument and its accessories will be your property. Als there will be asked for a 4-month deposit. In fact, the deposit will be diminished from the buying sum in the last four months. At that moment when the cello has been paid 100% the cello is from the client. If a customer decides to start a rental purchase agreement after first renting the cello, the new contract will be based on the cello day price.
- Payment of the rent and hire purchase amount is done by the tenant using an automatic payment system set by the tenant. The rent payment needs to be scheduled at the date of the month the cello was picked up. The hire and hire purchase contract are personal and cannot be transferred. If the instrument is damaged or if adjustments are needed, the tenant should inform Scarlett Arts so that she can decide which violin maker will repair or adjust it. Costs made by the tenant without consultation are for the tenant's account.
- The tenant is responsible for insuring the instrument. This is his or her choice in case of loss, theft or damage which turns out to be irreparable, the full amount will be charged to the renter. Parts that need to be replaced due to misuse will also be charged. If the tenant chooses not to take out insurance, the risk of not being reimbursed is deliberately taken on.

- The hire contract is renewed automatically every month (every three months for non-apprentices) unless the hirer cancels the hire of the instrument. The tenant terminates the tenancy by returning the rented instrument. This is done by appointment. When returning the instrument, it will be checked for any damage such as scratches and missing wood points/parts. The owner reserves the right to make an estimate of any costs to repair an instrument and to deduct this amount from the deposit paid.
- If the renter changes their phone number, email and/or home address, they are expected to inform Scarlett Arts by email. If contact between the owner and renter by email or telephone is not achieved and written correspondence must be done to get in touch with the renter, administrative time will be charged. For this, a one-off amount of 100,00 euro extra which will be deducted from the deposit. If no deposit is paid, an invoice will be sent for the costs incurred.
- The renter confirms by signature that he or she has read and understood every- thing and agrees with all points. The landlord, Scarlett Arts, reserves the right to demand the return of the instrument without giving any reason.
- If the rent is not paid and no Tikkies/Betaalverzoeken are accepted to pay the overdue rent, a debt collector will be activated. All costs are for the renter. Any costs incurred will be charged to the tenant. If a cello with rent arrears is returned to me, it is customary that the outstanding rent is paid at the latest at that time in cash.
- If you rent a cello from me, you automatically agree to these terms.

Contract Cello rental / Hire purchase Scarlett Arts Muziek

How to start renting as soon as possible??

As a tenant, you choose which cello set you want to rent. A set consists of a cello, bow and cover. Rental cello's start at 1650,00 euro: there are many different priced options higher then that amount. Even an old cello can be rented for 2% of the purchase price. I have to check whether the chosen category is available.

For cellists outside my teaching practice: the cello is rented every three months. Therefore as a tenant, set up an automatic withdrawal yourself. The rental starts on the day you pick up the cello, so not necessarily at the start of the month. The IBAN bank account number is NL52 RABO 0121 6124 81 on behalf of Scarlett Arts Music, Velp.

You can rent a cello or start a "huurkoop regeling", a rent/purchase agreement. The purchase price of a "huurkoop regeling" is divided by 24 and you pay the cello in 24 equal installments. The cello becomes your property after 24 months incl. VAT.
